EDITOR'S DESK

It's a great deed that KBS's C.O.E.T. N.M.K.C., Jalgaon commences an International Conference on Recent Trends in Science, Engineering and Technology [ICRTSET-2023]. Undeniably, it is an incomparable panorama for budding aspirants to present ostentatiously and demonstrate their innate adroitness that specify their proficiency and adeptness. With a gleesome note, we have obtained almost 102 Papers for the Conference across India which became difficult on account of time constraints and space limitation, we could not publish all the papers. I am in high spirits that that not only KBS's C.O.E.T. N.M.K.C students divulged their proficiency, but also scholars from different areas projected their exuberant skills in the conference. With this, International Conference scholarly personalities share their expertise knowledge to young technocrats where they procure enormous information and awareness related to recent trends in order to meet the industry requirements and fulfill its demands. It was very tough for us to select the best among the best papers. This International Conference creates innovation ideations in young minds to seed a thought of startups and inculcates entrepreneurial skills. Being the Principal, Patron, Convener and Editor selected the papers on various technologies. I feel it's a proud moment and privilege to organize the International Conference on 22nd of December 2023. We are very much thankful to Dr. ...., the CEO of Conference World who came forward to associate with us. A special thanks to the Delegates for supporting and accepting the hybrid mode both online and offline participation. Lastly, exceptional thanks to AR Research Publications too.

I wish this International Conference blooms and unseals the ignorance of knowledge and braces to kindle the latest knowhow and develops to prowess in all aspects. I am very much elated that the endeavours of the Convener, Prof. Durgesh G. Pardeshi, Co-Conveners, Keynote Speakers, National Advisory Board, International Advisory Board, Organizing Committee, Faculty, Students of KBS's C.O.E.T.
